

Pennsylvania mega varsity in AP soon

Vijayawada: A Mega-University from the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania will be established in Amaravati in the near future. This was disclosed at a meeting of Chief Minister Mr N. Chandrababu Naidu with Dr Peter Garland, Vice-Chancellor of Pennsylvania State System of Higher Education (PASSHE) at the Secretariat, on Thursday. A Letter of Intent (LoI) was signed between PASSHE and Andhra Pradesh Economic Development Board (APEDB), and will promote a strategic alliance between Pennsylvania University and the Universities in Andhra Pradesh. He met a high-level delegation led by envoy Kanika Choudhary, including Dr Timothy S. Moerland, Provost, Vice-President, State Official & Education Secretary of Academic Affairs at Indiana University.
