

Pennsylvania varsity in Amaravati soon

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE

@ Vijayawada

PENNSYLVANIA State System of Higher Education (PASSHE) has come forward to set up a university in Amaravati. During a meeting with Chief Minister N Chandrababu Naidu at the Interim Government Complex in Velagapudi on Thursday, PASSHE vice-chancellor Dr. Peter Garland put forward the proposal to set up a mega university from the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in Amaravati in near future.

A Letter of Intent (LoI) was signed between PASSHE and Andhra Pradesh Economic Development Board (APEDB) to promote strategic alliance and partnerships between Pennsylvania University and the Universities in AP.

Delegates from Pennsylvania including Envoy Kanika Choudhary, Dr Timothy S Moerland, Provost and Vice President, State Official and Education Secretary of Academic Affairs at Indiana University of Pennsylvania and Dr Suhas Pednekar, Principal of Ramnarain Ruia College expressed keen interest to participate in pre-university programmes, student counselling and student exchange programmes.

The youth in AP are highly skilled. English and Mathematics are our core strengths. There is a huge scope for development of IT sector in our State

N Chandrababu Naidu, Chief Minister

THE NEW INDIAN EXPRESS

Fri, 15 December 2017

epaper.newindianexpress.com//c/24526054

